SUPREME COUNCIL HONORED

Entertained with a Luncheon and Smoker by Columbia Lodge.

Visiting Masonic Diguitaries Made Speeches and the History of the Order Was Recited.

The second day's meeting of the su-preme contact of the thirty-third degree for the southern jurisdiction of the United States, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, in annual ession at the house of the temple, was concluded yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Grand Commander Themas Hubbell Caswell, who was elected at the Hubbell Caswell, who was elected at the opening session on Monday, presided.

The business of resterday was confined to the consideration of the statutes, which it is proposed shall to some extent be revised. The proceedings yesterday afternoon were not of a popular character, though it is thought that the matters to come up for settlement at to-day's meeting will be of a very interesting kind.

The body will reconvene to-day at 10 a. m., and in addition to the proceedings of revision, will consider the report of the committee on nominations in regard to the recommendation of the honorable thirty-thirders.

recommendation of the honorable thirty-thirders.

Columbia Lodge of Perfection No. 1, of A. A. Scottish Rite Masons, gave a reception and smaker last night at Masonic Temple, in honor of the Supreme Council.

The programme included several inter-esting addresses from distinguished repre-sentatives of the grand body, besides the strictly social features, and closed with a huncheon, which was served in the hunger room adjoining the main hall.

The speakers were Granville A. Frambes, member of the Supreme Council, J. Frankin Calhoun, grand commander-a-chief of the Grand Consistory of Minnesota; M. W. Bayliss, of this city, grand standard bearer, and others.
